

Taking It Home!

Today we read:

- Subway by Anastasia Suen
- Duck on a Bike by David Shannon
- Wheels on the Bus by Paul O. Zelinsky

We sang:

The Wheels on the Bus (available on the CD Best Toddler Tunes, Kidsup Productions)

We'll be Going 'Round the Racetrack

(to the tune of She'll be Coming 'Round the Mountain)

We'll be hopping round the racetrack when we go

We'll be hopping round the racetrack when we go

We'll be hopping round the racetrack

We'll be hopping round the racetrack

We'll be hopping round the racetrack when we go.

(Substitute other action words such as skipping, walking, crawling, tip-toeing, etc.)

Our fingerplay:

My Tricycle

One, two, three wheels on the ground (hold up 1,2,3 fingers)

My feet make the pedal go round and round (pedal with feet)

Handle bars help me steer so straight (pretend to steer)

Down the sidewalk and through the gate!

Try these books at home:

- Duck in the Truck by Jez Alborough
- Sheep in a Jeep by Nancy Shaw
- Seals on the Bus by Lenny Hort

Literacy hint of the day:

When you and your children say nursery rhymes, sing songs and make up your own silly nonsense rhymes you help your child hear the different parts of words. Being able to hear the sounds that make up words helps your child sound out words when they begin to read on their own!
