

For 'Tweens Only:

Middleton Magicians (Amaze your family and friends with new tricks!)
Eco-Crafters (Make something useful and beautiful out of items that were headed for the landfill)
Book and Tech (Experiment with digital storytelling)
Games Galore (Cooperative board games)
Scrapbook-Style Photo Collage (Bring photos and create a unique piece of artwork)
Sock Monkey Making (A Saturday workshop)
Theater Games (With special guest actress)
'Tween Summer Jeopardy Finale (Jeopardy game featuring trivia about art, music, etc.)

We've also added some August programming (our official summer program ends August 1)...

For Kids:

Magic Tree House Party (Idea from Kelly Allen at Oregon)
Storytime Sleepover (Kids bring stuffed animals; the animals spend the night, and the kids pick them up the next morning. When they pick their animals up, they also receive a mysterious packet of photos of the animals making library mischief during the night-- climbing in the book return, riding the book carts, etc. This idea came from Marge Loch-Wouters, library genius!)
Fancy Nancy Tea Party

For 'Tweens:

Improv Games
Scaventures (Part scavenger hunt, part adventure, kids work in groups to complete outrageous tasks around the library)
Pressed Flower Cards
Encore Sock Monkey Making Workshop
Encore Eco-Crafting
Encore Games Galore

For Families:

Expectant Families Screen Printing Workshop (parents and siblings who are expecting a new baby design and print a one-of-a-kind onesie or t-shirt using a contact method screen printing technique. We'll also be making our own screens with nylon fabric and embroidery hoops.)
