

Other online genealogy resources:

Wisconsin Historical Society Genealogy:

<http://www.wisconsinhistory.org/genealogy/index.asp>

FamilySearch:

<http://www.familysearch.org>

Cyndi's List:

<http://www.cyndislist.com/>

National Archives and Records

Administration:

- Homepage: <https://www.archives.gov>
- ARC (searchable catalog):
<https://www.archives.gov/research/catalog>

Vital Records Information for U.S.:

(birth, death & marriage certificate)

<http://www.vitalrec.com/>

American Family Immigration History Center at Ellis Island:

<http://www.ellisland.org>

Explore your ancestry....

Online tools open the doors to the past

Other online genealogy resources:

Wisconsin Historical Society Genealogy:

<http://www.wisconsinhistory.org/genealogy/index.asp>

FamilySearch:

<http://www.familysearch.org>

Cyndi's List:

<http://www.cyndislist.com/>

National Archives and Records

Administration:

- Homepage: <https://www.archives.gov>
- ARC (searchable catalog):
<https://www.archives.gov/research/catalog>

Vital Records Information for U.S.:

(birth, death & marriage certificate)

<http://www.vitalrec.com/>

American Family Immigration History Center at Ellis Island:

<http://www.ellisland.org>

*Explore your
ancestry....*

Online tools open the
doors to the past

Genealogy resources provide local gateway to family history

AncestryLibrary & HeritageQuest Online Open Doors to Your Past

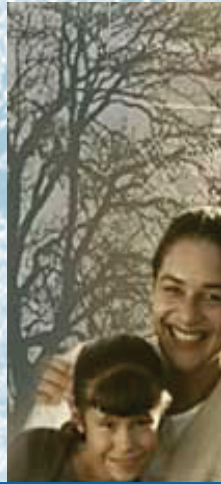

Your family history is deeper than you might imagine, and two resources available to library patrons can be used to uncover your ancestral past. They open a new world of genealogical research and provide powerful tools that increase your chances of finding the information you seek. Never before has so much family history been so readily available!

<http://www.scls.info/resources/>

For more information, contact
your local public library.

Americans are more interested than ever in their family histories, and HeritageQuest Online and Ancestry Library are the keys that can help you unlock the doors to your family's past.

HeritageQuest Online and Ancestry Library are made available locally through the cooperative efforts of the South Central Library System and its member libraries in Adams, Columbia, Dane, Green, Portage, Sauk, and Wood Counties.

Ancestry | library

AncestryLibrary

Available only through your local public library, AncestryLibrary provides access to 2 billion names, more than 4,000 databases, and published lists of 2.8 million passengers who arrived in America in the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries.

HERITAGEQUEST

HeritageQuest Online

Available at the library or from your home computer, HeritageQuest Online provides access to U.S. federal census documents through 1920. It integrates public records and other primary evidence with the narrative materials that add color to the past.

Genealogy resources provide local gateway to family history

AncestryLibrary & HeritageQuest Online Open Doors to Your Past

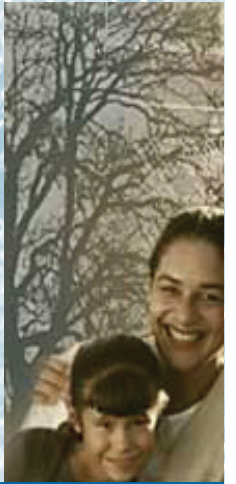

Your family history is deeper than you might imagine, and two resources available to library patrons can be used to uncover your ancestral past. They open a new world of genealogical research and provide powerful tools that increase your chances of finding the information you seek. Never before has so much family history been so readily available!

<http://www.scls.info/resources/>

For more information, contact
your local public library.

Americans are more interested than ever in their family histories, and HeritageQuest Online and Ancestry Library are the keys that can help you unlock the doors to your family's past.

HeritageQuest Online and Ancestry Library are made available locally through the cooperative efforts of the South Central Library System and its member libraries in Adams, Columbia, Dane, Green, Portage, Sauk, and Wood Counties.

Ancestry | library

AncestryLibrary

Available only through your local public library, AncestryLibrary provides access to 2 billion names, more than 4,000 databases, and published lists of 2.8 million passengers who arrived in America in the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries.

HERITAGEQUEST

HeritageQuest Online

Available at the library or from your home computer, HeritageQuest Online provides access to U.S. federal census documents through 1920. It integrates public records and other primary evidence with the narrative materials that add color to the past.